Tutuilla presents an opportunity for you to write the next chapter in the rich history of this historic home.

Built for Jack Serisier, the eldest surviving son of Jean Emile Serisier in the 1890s, it is an outstanding example of early Federation living with its French doors, bullnosed, wrap around verandah, tongue & grooved timber panelled walls and ceilings, fireplaces and beautiful timber floors.

Instantly welcoming with the wide entrance hallway, the home is exceptionally comfortable and well appointed for today's living, with four bedrooms, office, country sized kitchen and formal and informal living areas.

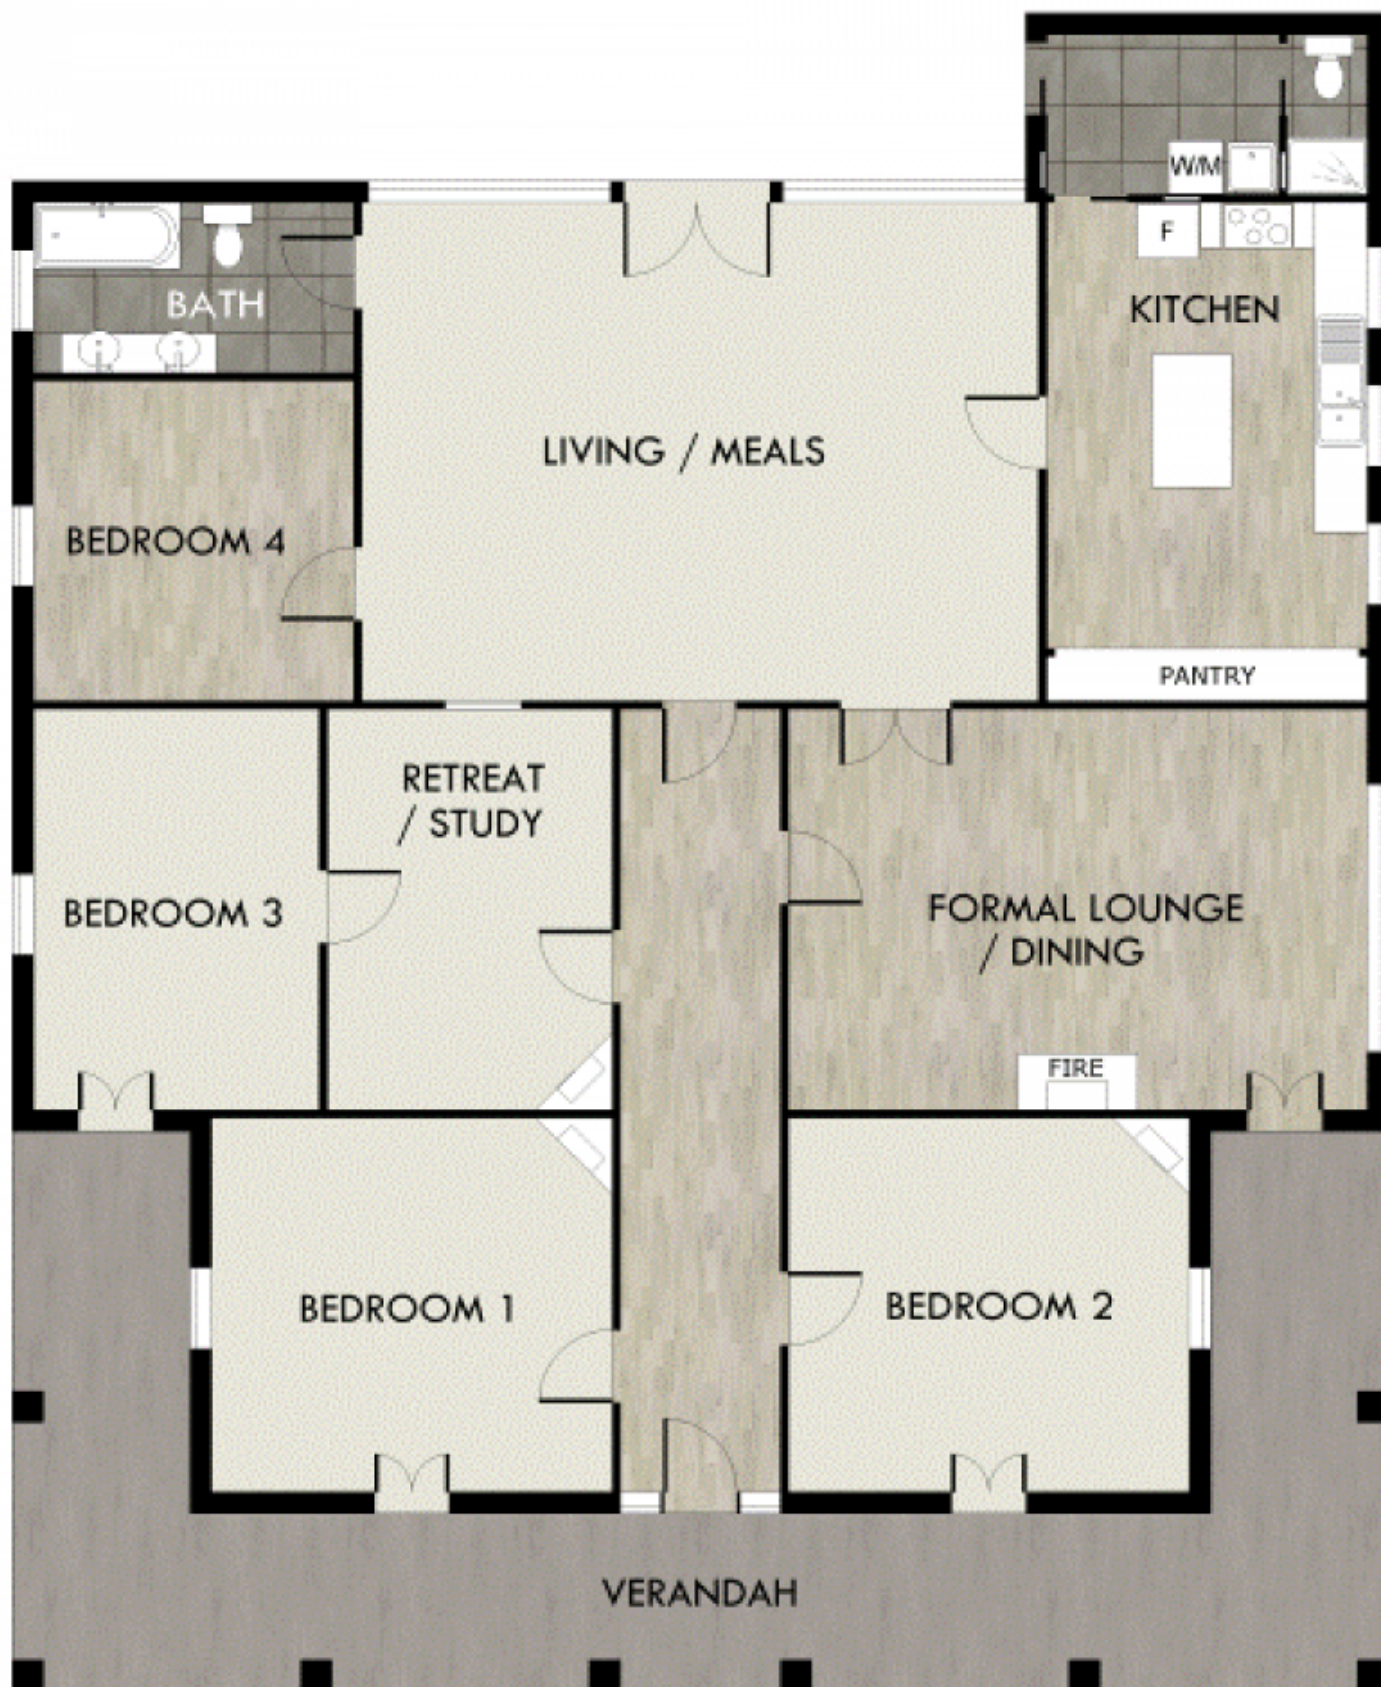

Set on a rustic 892m2 lot that also provides access from
