

17 Quinn Street Dubbo NSW

4 2 4

This delightful home in a great central location within easy walking distance of cafes, shops, river walking tracks and parks, offers spacious living for the family and has had recent updates including paint and floor coverings.

Entry to "Fernley" is via an enclosed, secure private garden that leads onto the verandah and a light filled central hallway. The house wraps around a lovely alfresco vine covered entertaining area and is set on a 1001m² with established trees and garden. A handy extension to the home has created a second living zone, bathroom and two bedrooms separate from the original house.

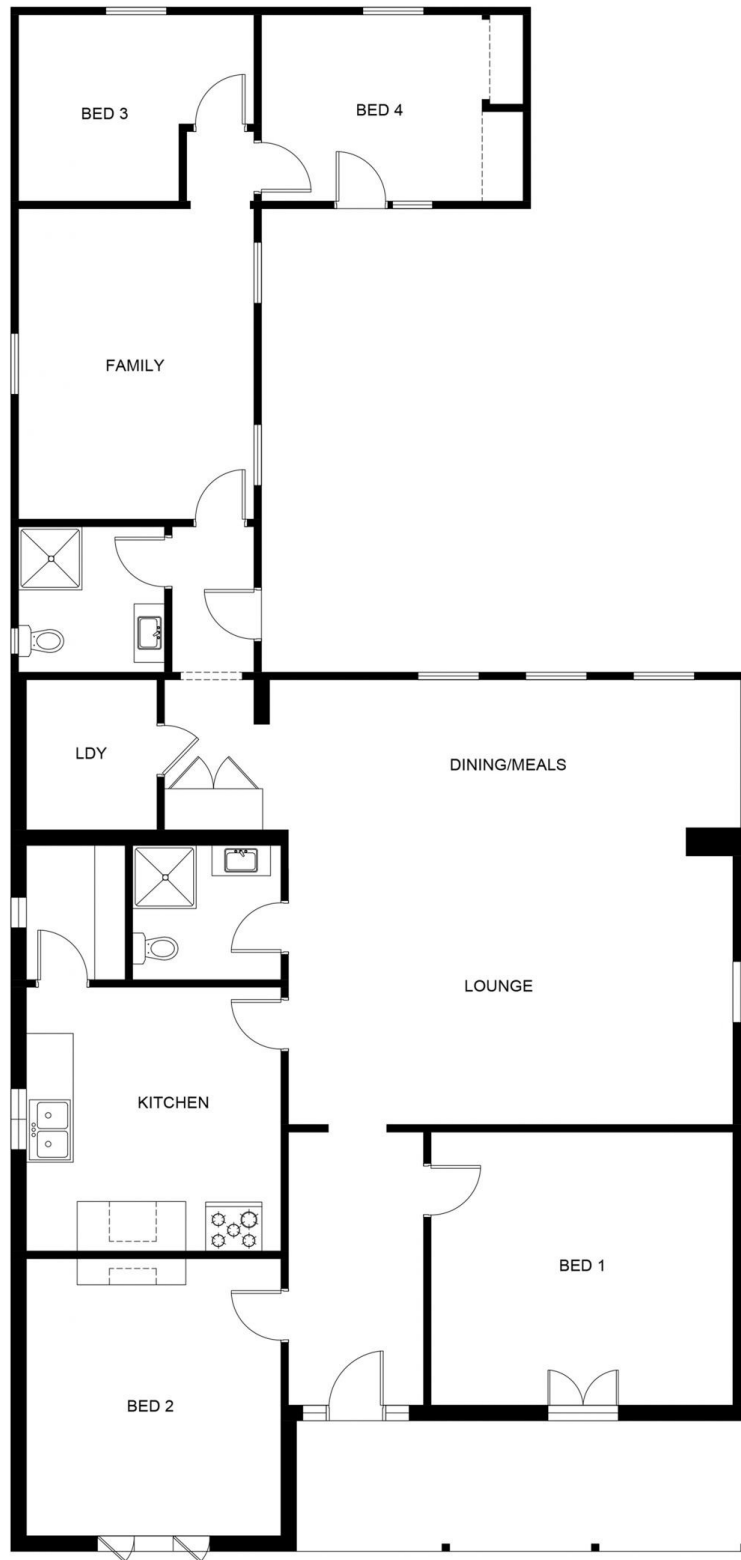

Much of the original character and charm of the original 1920's build is retained with high pressed metal ceilings,
