With recent updates, there's much to love about this brick home located in the popular South area. The property is set behind a secure fence and offers a prime location close to schools, Tamworth St & Boundary Road shops, parks, and The Harvest cafe.

Perfect as a first home or low-maintenance investment property, this home features major updates including a new Colorbond steel roof, new ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning and fencing.

One of the major drawcards of this property is its compact yard, which provides a leafy outlook from each room. Framed by established trees, the yard also features edible gardens, an automatic watering system throughout, and a
